NOTICE

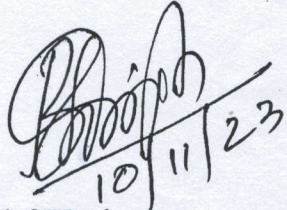

This is for general information to all Hostellers that Diwali celebrations are strictly prohibited inside the hostel Block. This includes the burning of crackers, lighting of diyas and candles, and any other activities that could pose a fire hazard.

Diwali is a festival of lights and joy, but it is also important to remember that it is a time when fire hazards are at their highest. Burning crackers and lighting diyas and candles inside the hostel Block can easily lead to a fire, which could have devastating consequences.

For the safety of all hostel residents, students are instructed to refrain from celebrating Diwali inside the hostel Blocks.

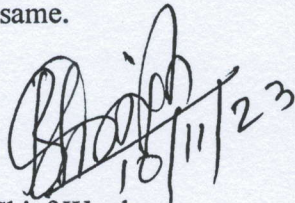

If students wish to celebrate Diwali, do so outside of the hostel premises. There are many places outside the hostel Block where students can safely enjoy the festivities.

- HAPPY DIWALI
